Approved Legislation – Fall Semester

2024

Compiled By: Richard Scott, Chair of the Legislative Affairs Committee

Introduction

Fellow Students,

On behalf of the 75th Student Congress, we are honored to present this packet of legislation for the fall semester. These legislative efforts reflect our unwavering commitment to serve the student body at Providence College and uphold the cherished values of our institution. Throughout this semester, we considered a diverse range of proposals, culminating in the introduction of nineteen (19) pieces of legislation with seventeen (17) receiving approval. Upon receiving approval, we have been diligently working to integrate these pieces of legislation into the operations of both Providence College and Student Congress. As we look forward to the next semester, we are excited to continue our work and humbly hope that you recognize the meaningful strides we have made in supporting the growth and betterment of our school community.

Sincerely,

The 75th Student Congress of Providence College

Prelude

Bill (SCB) – Any proposed addition or change to the Standing Legislation;

Recommendation (SCRC) – Written recommendation on behalf of the Student Congress to the administration, the Student Congress itself, or the student body as a whole. Also used to express loyalty or sympathy to a person or body outside of the Providence College community;

Resolution (SCR) – A form of bill that takes effect for one academic year;

Amendments (SCA) – approved changes to the Constitution of Student Congress;

Statement of Position (PCSP): The positional stance of the Student Congress on issues facing the Providence College community or society as a whole.

Please note that the pieces of legislation are arranged according to order in which they were introduced to Student Congress.

AN AMENDMENT

Regarding: The Formalization of the Subcommittee on Service

An Amendment to Article 12, Section 12 of the Constitution of Student Congress

Introduced By: Bridget Dockett, Chair of the Outreach Committee
Christian Luca, Chair of the Subcommittee on Service

Point Person: Avery Paquin, Member of the Legislative Affairs Committee

Whereas pursuant to Article Sixteen, Section 1, of The Constitution of the Student Congress of Providence College: “Any active or semi-active member or subcommittee chair may propose amendments to this Constitution.”

Be it hereby enacted by the 75th Student Congress of Providence College that Article 12, Section 12 of the Constitution of Student Congress be amended to include the Subcommittee on Service under Paragraph E. The Subcommittee on Service has previously been established as a standing Subcommittee of Congress; however, it is not formally placed in the Constitution.

Article 12, Section 12 Currently Reads:

There shall exist a Committee on Outreach that will facilitate interaction between the Providence College campus and members of the Providence community through events and service opportunities.

- A. The Chair of the Committee on Outreach will act as an advisor for all other Student Congress committee or class events that involve service to the community.
- B. The Chair of the Committee on Outreach can recommend to the Executive Board of Student Congress that events that the Committee on Outreach organizes be considered mandatory for the entire Congress to attend, with the Executive Board having the final ruling.
- C. The Committee on Outreach will coordinate community wide events such as Pumpkinfest, Junior Leadership Conference (JLC), and Fusion.
- D. The Chair of the Committee on Outreach will be responsible for monitoring the community service requirement of each individual Student Congress member.
- E. The Committee on Outreach will maintain a Subcommittee on Philanthropy which will seek to facilitate participation and awareness in fundraising events for nonprofit organizations. The chair of the Subcommittee on Philanthropy will be chosen in the same manner as other chairpersons.

Regarding: Administering Out-of-Class Assessments at Fixed Times

Introduced By: Angelika Kartsagoulis, Chair of the Academic Affairs Committee

Point Persons: Kathryn Ditrano, Class of 2026 Representative
Grace Pierson, Member of the Advocacy Committee

Whereas pursuant to Article Three, Section 1, Paragraph A of The Constitution of the Student Congress of Providence College: “The object of the Student Congress shall be to act as the official representative of the student body in order to promote meaningful student participation in the goals of Providence College consistent with the mission statement of Providence College;”

Be it hereby recommended by the 75th Student Congress of Providence College that the college implement a policy for administering fixed out-of-class assessments per the suggested proposal:

Recommended Policy on Fixed Out-of-Class Assessments:

- Dates, times, and places for the assessments must be clearly stated in the course syllabus distributed at the start of the semester;
- For each out-of-class assessment administered, one (1) regularly scheduled class period must be canceled, unless an optional review period is held during that time. Professors may utilize asynchronous recordings to supplement material normally covered during the canceled class period.
- The responsibility falls to the student to provide the instructor with notice of their conflicts at least two (2) weeks before the assessment date;
- If there is a conflict with the scheduled assessment time, the student must work with the instructor to find a mutually acceptable time;
- If a student identifies a conflict that arises after this deadline, it is their responsibility to confer with the instructor as soon as possible about a possible makeup assessment or adjusted time;
- Student conflicts include college-related activities (e.g., clubs & organizations, athletics, rehearsals, community service, internships) and student employment;
- This policy must be readily accessible to students and faculty.

This policy applies to graded assessments including but not limited to examinations, essays, or mandatory event attendance (not including those counting for extra credit) that are administered or take place outside of the regular class time at a fixed time.

The proposed policy should be presented to the Faculty Senate following approval of Student Congress.
